

Not actual patients

Helpful questions to consider asking your insurance provider about fertility costs and coverage

Your insurance may cover all or part of your treatment. A financial coordinator on your fertility team can help you determine and navigate your coverage.

The questions below are for your insurance provider.

| Questions | Notes |
|---|-------|
| Which fertility services/treatments are covered by my insurance? | |
| Based on my insurance, is there a specific pharmacy I should use for my fertility medication? | |
| What is my specialty pharmacy name, phone number, and fax number? | |
| Do I have a co-pay or co-insurance? | |
| Do I have a deductible? | |
| Is there a lifetime maximum for my fertility benefits? | |

Notes

Helpful questions to consider asking your fertility clinic about fertility costs and coverage

The questions below are for the financial coordinator at your fertility clinic.

| Questions | Notes |
|---|-------|
| What happens if my insurance doesn't cover fertility treatment? | |
| What kind of financing options are available? | |
| How much are these medications out-of-pocket? | |
| How much are these fertility treatments out-of-pocket? | |
| When do I have to pay for my fertility treatment? | |
| Could you walk me through any financial options for my treatment's cost and coverage? | |

Notes

Not actual patients